Received Given

Lauren Sheehan  · 1st

Director of Food Service Sales at Rip Van

February 28, 2023, Lauren was senior to Rich but didn't manage Rich directly

I really enjoyed the opportunity to work with Rich. He certainly understands the various needs around growing a brand in the fast paced start-up world. He is dynamic, well connected, and showed the ability to create systems and processes for better work flow. He applies himself 150%. I see him as an asset wherever he takes his talents!

"Rich Levering is a positive, dedicated, and creative asset for any company looking to grow their business and build brand awareness. Rich's strategic marketing planning combined with his infectious positive vibes create proven successes with every company he's been with." -Ryan Lynn

Julia Perez

Digital Marketing Director specializing in high-growth CPG

October 9, 2018, Julia was senior to Rich but didn't manage directly

Rich has an innate drive and hustle that is rare to come by. I was fortunate to work alongside Rich during his time at CORE where he went above and beyond in securing top Philadelphia based social media influencers for our field marketing initiatives. Through his earned relationships with digital influencers, CORE was able to maximize social reach + exposure through unpaid tactics on a regular basis. One event after another, Philly continued to shine thanks to Rich's ability to keep influencers engaged and part of our plan. His upbeat and can-do attitude will be an asset to any organization he chooses to work with.

Hillary Self

Founder

September 4, 2014, Hillary was senior to Rich but didn't manage directly

Rich's creativity, passion and resourcefulness are remarkable. I had the pleasure of working with Rich while at Neuro Brands, LLC. Rich's ability to utilize the national marketing strategy to develop incredibly relevant and impactful regional efforts in the Philadelphia market was uncanny. Rich's relationships also helped to open doors to more creative collaborations with other brands / venues. From the North Shore Beach Club's "BLISSful" mural to the creative ways Rich brought SONIC +Style together at local sororities - he sets the bar for mutually beneficial partnerships. See less

Aaron Squire

Regional Marketing Manager at BODYARMOR SuperDrink

July 19, 2014, Aaron managed Rich directly

Creativity, hardworking and resourcefulness are the first 3 words that pop into my head when I think about the traits that make Rich a standout talent. I hired Rich as the Philadelphia based Regional Marketing Manager in 2012 at neuro drinks. Since I call the Philadelphia area home, Rich always had a little extra pressure to perform above standard. Rich was able to take a national brand strategy and tailor it perfectly for his unique market and bring it to life through best of class activations and relationships. Rich would be a true asset for any positions requiring creativity, perseverance, strategic planning and leadership. See less
